The Journal

CLICATED EVERY TURNSAY MOUNTS. BY C. A. PIEBCE & CO.

FICE ON MAIN ST., MANCHESTER, YT. Terms $1.50 in Advance.

Newspaper Decisions.

permit who takes a paper regularly from

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

H. C. ENAPP. BUOTS, SHOES AND BUILDER GOODS, A Door East Music Hall, Manchester.

BOOKS, STATIONERY AND JEWELERY, Beningry See, Marchester.

L. H. RESOMESWAY, M. D. Manchester. PHYSICIAN AND SUBGEON.

Differ at Mr. Shattack's, Main Street A. M. JOHNSON.

Office J Duor East Meste Ball, Manchester, C. P. EWELT.

PRALER IN STOYES, TIN WASTE, &c., &c. Manchester, Vi-JUNE COMMAN, M. D.

PRACTICING PRINCIPLY AND SUBGRON. tiffice at residence on Main Street, MARCHINERY, 17.

R. W. SAFFORD. Manufacturer of THE CELEBRATED MCLAUGHEIN PUMP, Centers promptly filled. East Arlington, Vi.,

W. S. PHILLIPS. Artington, Vt., PHYSICIAN AND SUBGEON. office and Rooms over A. J. Flaming's Store

C. A. PHEDCE & CO.S. CALORIC POWER JOR PRINTING OFFICE, Harold? Theory South Court House, Manchester,

M. S. CLEMONS, R. D., U. S. EXAMINING SURGEON FOR INVALIDS Pensissa, and Practicing Pysician. Wadsworth's Improved Truss, their gray converse to listen to the mu-ريا

Office at the late residence of Dr. Gos. L. Ames. Sic. Factory Point, Yt. H GRAVES CANNED ACCTIONERS.

Rast Arthuston, Vt. MRS. H. L. HOLTON & CO., MILLINERS AND DRESS MARKES, Manchester Xt.

G. H. HWIFT, MANUFACTURER OF FINE, FISHING HODS. I Door East Court House, Manchester, Vt.

W. W. WHEELER, CTPORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW, Janualca, Vi-

BUCK MITTERS AND GLOVES MANUFACTURED AND BOLD BY F. W. HOTT, Manchester, Vt. H. X. FOWLER, ATTORNEY AT LAW, PENSION AND BOUNTY Agent.

Fire and Life Insurance Agent, and Cor we for New York. Office on Main Street, Marchaeter, Vt. BURGOS & MUNRON,

ATT ORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW Office to the Court Done, Marchester J. E. DATCHELDER,

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LA Artifiction, Vis. VANDERLIE'S MOTEL

Manchester, M. M. Vancountry, Proprietor, ar This long established Hard continues open for the accommodation of the traveling public. Particular retention given to locarders from abroad during the account months. The public datewnage hitherto liberally extended is respect-

BEANINGTON & BUTLAND AND LEBANON BURINGS BAIL BOADS. Change of Time-Needs, Naving Posth, Leave Reschesize for Beauington Belowding Junction Constitution of the Control of Dry Goods and Groceries AT N. W. SANFORD'S.

SOUTH DORSET.

ORDINAL ADMENTS CELEBRATED EEWING MACHINES.

DENTISTRY.

WM. W. BROCKWAY, DESTIST, HAS returned to Manthester, after a residence in Albany.

Throwing off her rich affile wrapper, sales are price as a price of sales affects. He shake his prest expectance with reside him is accomplished him in accomplished him in accomplished him in accomplished him is also all sales and price as a second that the sales all sales are in asset to the sales and added a close with bonnet with a discussion Manchester.

FOR SALE.

JOURNAL OFFICE. . Manchauter Feb. 15 1800

SALE

MILL AND WATER POWER, also DWELLING HOUSE AND RATIN now complet by Was Chamber.

For particulars apply to F. M. Grain. Manchester, Jan. 5, 1876.-3217

THE ELEMEN BARY

THE ELEMENT SILEY
To you think it fill a long
That I'd her sine post one hour?
To you think I'd you on collect Jund for some to said send tone?
For five home to said send tone?
Do you think I'd self-life hor?
Toll I've known some xelly mothers
White there belief and plotter
Tolly the known some xelly mothers
Tolly and the recoming three it.
To you think I'd self-life walking
Just to see him denning three it.
Begod I call my take poster
Which horis middless teeth mer hate?
I'd I know some allly middless.

PERFECTLY READTLESS.

Protty 7 yes, x-ther pretty, but perectly heartiess | said old Mrs. Holmes o De. Stanley, with whom she was conersing at a large, brilliant party.

Heartless! with that sensitive month par all enversance, or the publisher may require and those eyes, so full of expression, and those eyes, so full of expression, and the requirement musingly.

I don't admire ber style of centy at heartliness is proverhial. Since her uncle left her so wealthy, she has had lovers by the score, and flirts with evby Stanley's eyes followed the direction in which the lady waved her fan, and rested on the central figure of a group around the plants. It was a ludy young and fair, with a fall, exceedingly graculal figure, pure Greek features, and large bine eyes. Her hall was short, but the soft full curls made a ed him so long. lovely frame for the fair face. Her dress was of a dark lace, and twisted amongst the brown curis were deep erimson flowers, with dark green leaves and on the snowy throat and arms glittered blood-red rubbs. She was conversing quietly with a knot of gentlemen, and Mr. Stanley wanniered over to the group.

Mess Marston, said one gentleman, what has become of Harold Graham? of a brilliant waits, and another group place at best.

He was rachedly poor, said a third. Perhaps he has committed suicide; it is three weeks since he disappeared, soirce. It would be to provoking for him to commit suicisie doctor; she is perfectly heartiess. Poor He turned from the piano, but stopped as the full, rich voice broke out into song. Misa Marston was singing "Schubert's Last Greeting," and into after group, in the large rooms, ceased drawing near the place. Eva, said a young lady, as the last child.

A contemptuous smile quivered for a moment on Eva Marston's lips; then now nodding good naturedly, she dashed off into a lively polka, which soon melted swering him? the group around the piano into merry dancers; and Dr Stanley went with the

The next morning Miss Marston satin her room writing a letter, Peep over her shoulder at one sentence: "All holme for flitring; you are not here to see how they follow me for my money, not less love. one true heart among them all. There was one, Harold-A knock at the door interrupted her. Come in! and a woman enters with a patient's grasp. arge basket of washing wash with that poor little fellow so while it is considered a debt. sick?

Good morning, said Evs, plesantly How is Torrence this movning? Oh? Miss, its beautiful he is to-day. Sure, marm. I'm sorry ye had to wait a long for the wash.

Sure. Miss, its many a one expects Terry sitting up the day playing with brance at some later day. the toys ye sint him, and Pat, that I kept home from school, a minding him.

taking out her purse. Oh! Miss, you don't owe Mary Gin- er they barn. pis a cint. There's the doctor ye left the money to pay, and the wood ye your debt I am for washing the rest of after, and then he will be able to choose

A. M. For Restington and State Like presenting with Trey & Resting on a State Like presenting with Trey & Resting of a State Like presenting with Trey & Resting of a State Like presenting with Trey & Resting of a State Like presenting with Trey & Resting of a State Like presenting with Trey & Resting of a State Like presenting with Trey & Resting of a State Like presenting with Trey & Resting of a State Like presenting with Trey & Resting of a State Like presenting with Trey & Resting of a State Like presenting with Trey & Resting of a State Like presenting with Trey & Resting of a State Like position in life.

What I gave Terrence has nothing to do with my washing bill, said Eva, rapidly with my washing bill, said E

Miss Eys, said Mary, and then stop-

Tell me what? morning I want up, and he's sick with first. a fever, out of his head entirely. Miss. If you would come, now.

Wait Mary, I'll go with you. but a bed and a table and a chair, and no trank at all, but a bit of a corpetagainst the coarse ticking pillow, was religious belief, to any other blessing." population shall have deserted the town "We've got one monkey in the house such as one funcies for that of his favorite poet. The hair was dark, waving over a broad, white forehead, and clear and sparkling, for a time rolls is not far distant, then the Chinese will "Who is it, Dan?" asked the little the deep set eyes were hazel, large and along by itself. A little further down no doubt mins the street, and may per- tellow. full, and the features delicate. Usually they units and the whole is impure. - haps strike good diggings. the face was pale, but now it was crim-son with fever. The eyes, too, fierce So youth, untouched by sin, may for a face was beautiful with an almost un- pany, but a little later and they mingle, spot upon which Sutter's Mill bad stood. The brother could not resist.

Throwing off her rich sifk wrapper, ning.

Come, Mary I and the two left the house together.

room, live came like a saving angel.-She give one glance at the invalid's

Eva! said the sick man, Era! He knows me, she marmured, draw-in wild delirions sayings.

I will find pencil and paper. much practice among the poor patience some of the pieces to the cabin of Weiand saw that he was well paid.

don't admire her style of cauty at holes, Eva tried to make the desolate ea upon its character. Mrs. Weimer She looks like a wax doll, and her table a waist-coat; something dropped toiled it in lye; they pickled it, tried table a waist-coat; something dropped from the pockets to the floor. She pick- all sorts of experiments on it, but its ed it up. It was a small minature case, brightness only increased, and it would open, and painted on the ivery was not tarnish. They then became satis-

Eva Marston's face.

me and that is the reason I have miss- in its primitive state. The immediate Arrab, Miss, brie's the doctor! Remember, Mary, you don't know my instory of the ninetocutic century, and name, and Eva went into another little need not be dwell upon at length. Au room, vacant and adjoining that of the invalid's. The door stood ajar, and Dr. Stanley's first exclamation reached her, attracted to these allors, and the town and in such a place?

that has become of Harold Graham? ties of the room in which she stood, as The tiny hands swept over the ivory she nodded, saying, it will do! larger amazingly rich, an immense mining keys of the grand plane, in the measure and better than the other, but a poor population centred there, and a flour-supposing Mrs. Marston did not hear the question, said:

The next day when Dr. Stanley call-ed to see his patient. Mary with a particle question, said:

Pawned his diess coal, I guess, and double pride, ushered him into the viously been broken by echoes of falling. room that had been vacant before. A viously been broken by echoes of falling soft carpet was on the floor and a small trees and the sleady buzzing of the sawfire in the grate, the latter serened mill. And Coloma was a lively camp. from the bed by a nent shade. Soft From morning to night, for more than muslin curtains, snowy white, draped the window. The bed could scarcely be we want his tener for our next innsical recognized, with its pure white pillows, er its street, was crowded. Merchants counterpane and sheets. A little table made fortunes in supplying the trade Mrs. Holmes was right, thought the the doctor had ordered, and an exquis- in many branches through the country; it goblet of cooling drink.

sint ye to Terry, said Mary; we fixed and gulches, with their buckskin bags the room yesterday, and my good man of glitering dust and spent it as freely and I moved him to-day, so she'll find as water; the hotels were filled conhim here when she comes. It'st a sleep stantly, saloons ditto, and the clink of he's been for bettr'n three hours, sir." mournful words she poured such wating energy, and deep pathos, that group after group, in the large rooms, ceased but then he opened his eyes. The cold bling saloons could be heard at all cheerless room was changed as if by times. It was the county seat of El Doenchantment, and (Harold thought he rado, when that country was in its prime Can she sing so without a heart or feeling? mattered the doctor, again tender as a mother's love over her a county official was equal in its pecuni-

note of the song died away, Eva, play a die in such a dream. Never awake to days, the legal learning and talent of the bitter, hopeless love. Let me die

> Harold, you will not die, you will live al. for me! Your genius shall be recognized, your pictures sought. No more struggling for life, but only for fame .-

And the tears fell as she spoke. low, ail heartless. Miriam! You blame recognized the ball-room belle, and the fast crumbling away. This was formobject of his friend's long, si ent, hopehe knew that a better medicine than he crowded almost constantly, and in its sacould have prescribed was within the loon the constant services of two bar-And the world said the artist, as poor as a church mouse.

Just think of Eva Marston, rish and -If you would be paugent be brief : How many pieces. Mary? said Eva, for it is with words as with sunbeams - the more they are condensed the deep--A young man should maintain su ch decided, instead of becoming blunted.'

flowers—those that are simple in ex- frame building, having probably a fron- black pepper, gather it up and tie it, hear Mr. Collyer. The youth with the Well, Mary?
Sure, Miss, you do so much good pression carry their seed with them; tage of sixty feet by one hundred in dip it in sweet oil, and insert it in the white apron stared and passed on. Very Well, Miss' it's about the young man that's rived by selected a specific selection of the s vy "no quality of the mind or intellect speculations in days gone by, in selling was too much for another. in others; be it genius, wit or fancy.- town lots for mining purposes. The But could I be allowed to choose what street is still intact, and stands upon, a Bap ron Dax .- "Dan," said a little stranger sat out the services very pat-duty. It was found in a heavy chest, One Sett (Fair's Patent) light, one house taxture at the case, will be sold chosen for each, or lay Marry Ginnia boarder. The face, most useful to me, I should prefer a firm ble stone. When the remaining white buy a monkey." -A muddy stream, flowing into one and appearances indicate that the day now," replied his brother.

> THE OLD MILL SITE. and wild. But even with all this, that short time keep ist purity in foul com- I was curious to know the precise monkey some nuts.

A California correspondent gives the there, on the edge of the creek, where of American slang expressions often the late Rufus Choate's autonishing face, and then crossed the room to his following interresting account of the you see those two large grante bould- causes none curious scores among them pewer of emphasizing verbally a point place where gold was first discovered : Coloma was the scene of the gold dis- those boulders are. I strolled down to seem to think that because their lan- into the roots of their optio nerves, ocing back. But the young man mounted covery in 1848. It was here that Suther name again, and then broke forth ters Mill stood on the banks of the loose cobbles, and followed the stream idlima will be creek, and one morning, when the wat- until I reached the spot. I was an 'in- An expert buyer, junior pariner in against the prisoner (whom Choate was Mary, said Eva, send Pattrick to me! ter had been turned from the race, Mar-Many left the room, and Eva turned shall stepped out upon the sandy bed of the first time, a scene around which visit to his correspondent in an English led out of turn, and, in fact after the to the table to find paper and pencil — the river and found some pieces of yel- must naturally cluster more recoiled manufacturing only was complimented defense was in. In reference to which She wrote basty notes. One was to low metal. His discovery created no tions, and give inspiration to desper re- by the smiler partner who insisted on procedure Mr. Cheste said: Where was her housekeeper for pillows and sheets. sensution but only excited coriosity as to flections than any spot on this young personally showing goods to the American this tardy and belated witness, that he The other was to Dr. Stanley, who did what the curious stuff was. He took Pacific slope. I have not the time to gan purchaser. mer, a fellow workman in the mill, who Having dispatched Patrick with the lived on the hillaide, and they speculat-A smile, gentle and pitying, came to ed that it was precious gold, and the news of the discovery having bruited The did love me, then, really? Real- about, the estimates of its importance hither by its magnetic influence, the you know. lose me, and would not seek me with were soon confirmed by the evidence of the head of fortune-lunters who follow those who had seen the precious metal results of this important discovery have Stop kim, Mary, I will go in here. - formed a most important page in the Harold? have I found you at last, of Coloma, then Sutter's Mill, was the goal most of them sought. All the ra-Eva's eyes ranged over the capabili- vines and hillsides thereabouts proved ishing, active, busy town sprang up like The next day when Dr. Stanley call- magic on the banks of that quiet stream stood beside the bed, with the medicine that diverged from this point, radiating The lady ye mind I told ye of, that miners came down from the mountains ary emoluments to the governing of a Eva! he whispered, oh! that I could small European principality. On 'court the State frequently gathered there, for

As we entered the town, my attention was directed to a large two-story frame building, the doors and windows of Dr. Stanley, standing at the doorway which were gone, and the edifice was erly the leading hotel of the town, and Softly be glided down the stairs, for did a thriving business; its office keepers were required to dispense hightoned liquid to the thirsty crowd. The lot's Inaugural Address at Harvard, he such a belle, marrying Horace Graham, main street was well built up, contain- spoke of the founders of that aucient ing many fire-prof buildings, while the University as being unimated by "the hillsides were sprinkled with cottages beautiful hope of doing good.' The ex--If you are going to help a man, be surrounded by neat gardens, orchards pression strikes us as singularly attrac-Never mind that. How could you about it; promised assistance after a and vineyards, giving it a homelike appearance, for which Coloma was espe- hope can be more desirable in the heart -Good actions sown in our pathway cially noted. But few of the old inhabithan this of doing good, and of doing their clothes sick or well; and is at it bud and blossom to embulm our remem- itants are now left, and in fact there are good so that the years of the future will but few people in the town. Probably rise up and call our actions blessed !- people and enquired of the conductor if three-fourths of the buildings are un. And yet in how comparatively few hearts occupied and deserted, the mines are does this hope find place. The majorinearly all abandoned, and the town is ty of men live and die making no proas usarly extinct as it well can be and visions for the future, whereby their yet exist. You might fire a cannon- names shall be kept in remembrance ball down the main street without dan- when the place that know them, shall gave me last week, sure Miss, it's in a character that his services are sought ger of hitting any one, unless some know them no more forever. stray Chinaman should chance to get in the way, for the Chinese slip into these towns as the white men loave, and in scarcely any ache to which children are table and looked around him. Present their contentment with small wages, not subject, so hard to bear, and so difficult by a young man with a white aprom only exist, but appear to be exceedingly to cure as earache. But there is a rem- came up and asked if he had ordered. happy. I took lunch at the only hotel edy never known to fail. Take a bit of No, he replied he was not exact y a -It is with our thoughts as with our in the place. It was a large two story cotton hatting, put upon it a pinch of member of the society, but he came to Sure, Miss, you do so made good those that are double charm the mind depth, with a large stable attatched, and ear. Put a flannel bandage over the soon a number of gentlemen stepped all in good order. The improvements head to keep it warm. It will give impon the the platform, with trombones a supply in case he should be made a Man often weeps in his sleep.— on this lot cost about $25,000, and how mediate relief. Well, Miss' it's about the young man When he wakes he scarcely remembars much do you suppose the present owner follow out at length the reflections that "There, sir," and Mr. Dowlas, throw- and all that Le doesn't know eight and possessed me, but as I picked a pubble ling out a roll of goods, "what do you forty hours after the evidence for the into the stream, which must have fallen | think of that?" near the spot where Marshall picked up 'Ob, that's played out, said the Amer- in custody? Was he in Europe, Asia, his glittering specimen, I thought of the leaneffect which his discovery had had upon "It's what 7 and Bull." the world's history, of the great tide of 'H's played, I toll you said, the enster Mediterranean sea? Was he at Land's humanity that surged here immediately mer-Isthmus of Darien was spanned by a 'No, said the Yankee, I don't mean for and his army at Chiahuahua, or railroad-"every tie of which was a dead | plaid; I mean it it's gons up." that had time and again made their en- has not gone up-quite the contrary .- Ity may at this moment happen to be? tries and their exits through the Gold- We've taken off from the price." the wealth of treasure that has flowed high now, into the channels of trade; and that No doubt of it, but our neighborn attention, Mr. Foreman, the fact, and grandest achievement of all, the Pacific | you know on the left are not manufacturge it upon consideration-he was in Railroad. I thought of the beautiful, turers, you know.' palace-like buildings of the metropolis; 'Very likely, but I don't like to get sible region; so hard to come at, and of the magnificent capitol at Sacramen- stuck when I got home." resplendent with the embelishments of as dangerous as the newspapersr epremodern decorative art, and then I look- sent?" ed up to the hillside and saw the pros- 'Yes, but I don't want these goods.ject poverty, of toil, deprivation and the spots out of 'em.' apparently been made from the lining perfect." much larger than a good-sized dog-ken- goods and try something else."

the discoverer of gold in California. — ceeded to show something else. Every day he toils from the time the 'There,' said the Englishmen triumlving out a bare subsistence, yet always in England, 'alf a guines a yard.' inspired with the hope of lucky strikes 'I can't see it, and the customer. and a competence for his old age. And 'Can't see it? Why you are looking of coal. thus he has been toiling for over twenty right at it; however suppose you try years, while nations have arisen and the light of this window. wealth from his discovery, and the eyes American ; 'I have't got the stamps for of the world have been turned towards such goods." the land he first brought into notice .brisk, and fees were plentiful and liber- ed liberality, gratitude, and of all the juh."

> ifornia, should thus be condemned to his countrymen. poverty and want, without a decent roof to cover his head. A BEAUTIFUL HOPE. - In President El-Securer. - Alexander once told an im- way of worshiping, thought the old prospered in California are J. M. Lord, down stairs for three days back, so this longer know that thou hast wept in the bargain, and trying to devise some portant secret to one of his attendants, gentleman, but I have been living out who went from Barton to San Francis, morning I wint up, and he's sick with some portant secret to one of his attendants, gentleman, but I have been living out advent a dozen warrance root to san Inmeans to get his money out of his prop- with strict charge not to talk of it, but of the world; that is what's the matter, charge not so talk of it, but -He who observes providence shall city. He proposes to take the doors in a little time the secret got abroad .- I suppose, He thought is would come $100,000 to $500,000; Jerry M. Mananever want a providence to observe; and windows to some railway town, and Alexander was greatly offended, and out all right when Collyer came on .- field also went from Barton to Napa, He's dreadful poor, I guess, Miss; and he who watches providence with use them in the construction of another consulted one of the sages of Greece as But after the music there was "commu- and now owns five farms, and "cattle for it's staving little furniture; nothing the view of discovering occasions for hotel, and in this manner he has some to how he should punish the man who lon," and after a long interval there was non went from Caledonia county to San newfolness, will find himself surrounded hopes of getting even. Nearly all the had betrayed him : The sage replied, music; and by and by a man dressed Francisco, and is worth $50,000. underneath them having been "mined betrayed your own secret; if you could to awing round and round a pole. Then cers have to look sharp for opium, "I envy," says Sir Homphrey Da- out," and many lot owners made good not keep it yourself no wonder that it another man, dressed like the first, which pays for smuggling, on account

In a low close room, on a pallet bed, would be most dalightful, and I believe high ridge, through a vast field of cob- four year old, "give me a sixpence to-

"You," was the reply.

earthly beauty. Into that poor, you was a same was reservant and a blacksmith came out of his aboy. Assured States.—The utler ignoand kindly showed me. It was slown rance of the English of the signification, of the most wonderful illustrations of ers. The mill stood precisely where and Yankee buyers in England who which he meant to make a jury see clear nocent abroad, a pilgrim visiting, for one of our ise go American firms, at a defending baving been absent, was cal-after, the vast enterprises which it call | Trayed, all really ; we call it plaid, he with the commissioners on our north ed into being, how the world was drawn in England, but this inn't plaid-plaid castern boundary, drawing that much-negro; of the thousands of steamships | 'Oh, no, said Britisher, not at all it boundary line of this expanding coun-en Gate; the cities that have been built; "Over the left; it's three pence too places-comparatively easy of access; to, with its elegant legislative chambers | Really. Most extraordinary. Is it Rexbury!

sun appears in the east until his setting plantly spreading out another fabric family, the house would have gone to: rays kiss the top of his humble cot, de- "there's the handsomest piece of goods fallen-while others have amassed 'No, I don't mean that,' said the

Was it a dream, that swest voice an- in those unsettled times litigation was We boast of our generosity, open-hand- bill stamp which we are happy to furn-*Stamps, no stamps required but s

virtues which a selfrighteous people love This misunderstanding might have to glorify themselves, but, to my mind, continued longer, had not the younger it is a shame and disgrace to the State | member of the house, seeing his senior's as well as to the nation, that John W. perplexity, resented the American and Marshall, the discoverer of gold in Cal- 'put him through' after the manner of

A FURNY MISTARE.—The Chicago Tribune gives an amusing account of the adventures of an amiable old gentleman from the rural districts, who had been wavering between orthodoxy and heterodoxy for some time. He came into the city to hear Robert Collyer preach. It was his first visit to Chicago. Stopping into a North Clark Street herse car, he rode out as far as Turner hall, where many of the passengers allighted, and he perceived a crowd of that was Robert Collyer's church. The conductor, amused at the simplicity of the question, promptly answered in the ardinative, and our curious inquirer passed into the hall. He saw a vast erowd of men and women sitting at small tubles, drinking beer. This rather staggered him for a moment, but he reflected that they were possibly reciv-Reserve for Ear Acus.—There is ing communion. So he sat down at a and fiddles and cornets and began to widower for the third time. play. These unitarians have a queer went through a course of exercise on of a daty of 100 per cent. The last steamer from China brought over sevthe cross-bar. And then there was more eral hundred dollars worth of opium, isatly, and then went home. He had most innocent looking, whose thick sides

Ismons Albert J. Tirrell case. A witness comes here to tell us all that he knows, defense has been closed ? Was he ill or or Africa? Was he on the Red ses, or the Yellow sen, or the Black sea, or the End, or John O'Groat's house? Was yexed line? Or was he with Gen. Tavwherever the fleeting south-western No! Gentlemen he was at none of these but-and I would emphasize upon your that more inconfiguous, more inacces-

NEW WAY TO DESTROY VERMIN .- An enterprising house keeper in Chelsen, ent home of Marshall-a picture of ab- I've got some aiready that will knock Mass., having been greatly troubled with bugs in a cupboard where she storwant. It is a little but on the hill over- But my dear sir, there are no spots | ed her cake and pastry, and having trilooking the town, its tin roof having on those goods, I assure you. They are ed all kinds of patent "exterminators" in vain, formed the brilliant idea of of a dry-goods box, and appears not | 'Well, suppose we 'switch off on these burning them out. She accordingly empted the contents of the kerosene nel. A few grape-vines are planted a- 'Certainly I' and the Englishman, to can into the cracks and holes, and thorround the place and over the top of the the infinite amusement of the Ameri- oughly saturated the shelves, intending hill, and this little spot, to which he has can's friend, called a clerk with a wisp to make a clean job of it. She well but a possessory, or squatter's title, is broom, and directed him to switch off nigh succeeded. The bugs were thorall the worldly possessions of Marshall, any dust he could find, while the pro- oughly burnt out, but so was the inside of the cupboard, and had it not been for the strenuous exertions of the entire from which so few travelers return-

-The coal fields of America are estimated to contain 3,500,000,000,000 tons

- Flora Mills, of sweet seventeen, has gone to the Illinois penetentiary for five years. She is a burgiareas, and was caught opening stores, as well as a new field of labor for women. -While recently returning from Newbern, N. C., to New York, the crew of the ship Louisa Moore discovered a brig in a sinking condition and abandoned. She was taken in tow, brought to New York and found to contain 4500 bags of coffee. The cargo was divided among the crew of the Louisa Moore and sold yielding the neat sum of $25,- 000 apiece. -A good ol lady up in New Hampshire, who runs the firm, and is said to be a capital financier writes a private letter to a friend in which she says:-That last snow storm was an awful one and Mr. Jones who has been preaching, here got snowed in at our house for five days. He's a very hearty eater, but you better believe we kept him praying while he staid.' -The male citizens of Zanesville, O., have petitioned that women may be invested with all the rights of citizenship, and also with all its duties; namelythat they be liable to military, jury and road duty; liable for their own and their husband's debts; and that if a woman refuse or neglect to provide for the support of her husband and family, a divorce shall be granted, awarding alimony to the husband.

-A hoosier having removed from his native town when a young man, went back there for his wife. She lived but a short time, and he journed back for another, who also soon "went to be an augel." Again he returned to his native village, and this time brought back two charming creatures; one he married, and the other he kept on hand as

-Among the Vermonters who have come to the conclusion that Unitarian- were hollow and filled with the drug.

A consignment of Chinese pails was alism was all very well in theory, but so found to be made of opinm with a cases let into the thick soles. A bunone Mongolian was stripped of his high these new fangle i notions of worship shell of wood forming the outside of were not so edifying after all as the each. Several dozen pairs of shoes good Presbyterian pealms and provers, gave up their contents, contained in tin "Then give me a sixpence to key the -The gravest events often come with die of feather dusters held a lot, and no more noise than the morning star in waterproof boots to reveal his legs I swaddled in the precious drug.